HELLO AGAIN

VOL 18 NO. 6

NOV-DEC 1987

A PERSONAL NOTE: Supplement #2 for the Network Log is available (complete log is still $18); Supplement #4 for the Circulating Show Log is also available (complete log is $23 including all supplements.) Send a SASE for one or both supplements...OUR MISS BROOKS is a very difficult show to collect because of title and description duplication and confusion. I have chronologically dated 62 available OMB shows and described 57 undated ones, some of which may be duplications. It is available for a SASE, especially if you have a large collection and can help me correct and/or add to it.

On Nov 25th I turned 53; My son, Craig, was 23 on Oct 25th and lives in Kansas City; My daughter, Robin, was 24 on Nov 8 and lives in Albany. Craig and Robin have their own cable tv installation business. Branches are in Kansas City, Mo; Albany, NY; Orlando and Melbourne, Fla; Greensboro, NC; Portland, ME. Robin came down to our OTR convention in 1986. Karen (my wife) and I entertain every weekend at bar mitzvahs, weddings, shows, etc. Karen and I wish all of you a very happy holiday.

CONVENTION '87: Details on the convention on last page. To regain some of our unusual expenses, we are continuing to sell various items:

Friends of Old-time Radio pins (lapel $5.00; larger $6.00).

Friends of Old-time Radio T-shirts ($8.00); mention size needed.

A set of 5 pictures of several of our personalities at our convention (2 photos on each one) ($15). Stars shown are John Archer, Margot Stevenson, Fran Carlon, Dwight Weist, Les Tremayne, Jackson Beck, Gladys Holland, Bill Zuckert.

Souvenir Convention Booklet and program ($1.00 plus postage; total $1.56)

Audio tapes now available (7 reels for $30; done in stereo). Any extra money realized from this will go to the Friends of Old-time Radio. Availability of cassettes will be announced later. Send $30 to Bob Burnham, Box 2645, Livonia, MI 48150. Individual reels are $5. Send a SASE for details of each reel if necessary. Past convention audio recordings from 1984-86 also available.

CONVENTION '88: Suggestions are always welcome for new guests (send addresses if possible), workshops (will you lead one?), format, etc. If you would like to help let me know what you can do. Dates are Oct 20-22, Holiday Inn-North, Newark Airport. We are tentatively planning to start on Thursday evening [dinner and workshop(s)].

RADIO IS ALIVE AND WELL: According to Owens Pomeroy, a British production company is going to produce Amos & Andy for the London stage. More details when available...The Steve Allen Show premiered Oct 12, 2-5 p.m. on the NBC Radio Network. The show is a blend of comedy, music, guests, listener phone calls...A reminder for those who have satellites: tune in The Yesterday USA Superstation (Spacenet 1 Transponder 21 audio sub-carrier 6.2). It is on from 6 PM to 6 AM (Central Standard Time) with a variety of OTR and vintage music. Hosts among others are Bob Burnham, Carl Amari, Tom Heathwood. Bill Bragg is in charge of Yesterday. Bill is planning a new 24-hour a day station but he needs investors to help get it started. Bill makes no money at all from this. If you can help or want more details write Bill Bragg, 2001 Plymouth Rock, Richardson, TX 75081.

{✓} If box is checked. $10 is due for another year

Gary Yoggy writes that The Clemens Center of Performing Arts in Elmira, NY in cooperation with Elmira radio stations WENY-AM and WLEZ-FM are presenting an evening of live radio drama on Friday, Dec 11th. Two radio shows will be dramatized live before an audience who will be served a buffet dinner. The shows, The Shadow and Fibber McGee & Molly, will be broadcast live over both radio stations. Gary is serving as consultant and will appear in the cast of each show with local actors. If successful this could lead to a monthly presentation. For further info write Gary at 72 Bissell Ave, Corning, NY 14830.

The Friends of Old-time Radio held its 12th Annual Convention on October 23rd and 24th, 1987, at the Holiday Inn-North, Newark, New Jersey. Celebrities present who received awards were: Mason Adams, Eric Arthur, John Archer, Barney Beck, Judith Bublick, Carol Deis, Ray Erlenborn, Laurette Fillbrandt, Maria Gambarelli, Earl George, Gladys Holland, Joseph Kahn, Joseph Nathan Kane, Elaine Kent, Jay Meredith, William Murtough, Joyce Randolph, Bob Steel, Les Tremayne, Jean Francis Webb, Bill Zuckert. Other celebrities present were: Arthur Anderson, George Ansbros, Jackson Beck, Court Benson, Ward Byron, Fran Carlon, Lon Clark, Mildred Clinton, Pat Hosley, Gil Mack, Ted Mallie, Charlotte Manson, Grace Matthews, Arnold Moss, Ken Roberts, Adele Ronson, Terry Ross, Sidney Slon, Margot Stevenson, Ezra Stone, Arthur Tracy, Sybil Trent, Robert VanDeventer, Veola Vonn Nelson, Jane Ward, Dwight Weist, Florence Williams, Ernie Winstanley. The guests socialized with fans and re-created 6 radio shows.

The convention began on Friday at 12 noon when the 44 dealers tables opened. 192 people attended the dinner with another 47 in the afternoon. Video tapes of radio-tv shows were shown both days. Workshops and panels included: The Dave Warren players re-creating two episodes of ILAM; Computers (Alan Chapman); Gateway to Hollywood Panel with John Archer; Halls of Ivy (Larry and John Gassman); Kids Cowboy Shows (Jack French). Auditions were held for Gateway to Hollywood. After dinner an episode of The Thin Man was re-created with Les Tremayne in the title role followed by an informal panel with Friday's guests.

On Saturday at 9 the dealers tables opened again and workshops started including: Gateway to Hollywood re-creation with Carolyn Senter and David Zwengler winning. They were given roles to play in Big Town that evening. Sound effects panel (Terry Ross, Ray Erlenborn); Fibber McGee & Molly (Charles Stumpf); Science fiction (Re-creation of Knock with Arnold Moss and Bill Zuckert); Women in Radio (Ron Lackmann, Adele Ronson, Sybil Trent); Detective Panel (Anthony Tollin, Bill Nadel hosting panel of over 10 guests who participated in detective shows); Re-creation of Quick as a Flash with John Archer as the Shadow; Quiz Show Panel (Tom DeLong).

Saturday's events culminated with cocktails and buffet dinner for 270 people with another 140 coming just for the day. After dinner Young Widder Brown was re-created with Les Tremayne and Adele Ronson; then Big Town with Fran Carlon, Mason Adams, Dwight Weist. Sound effects were supplied by Terry Ross and Ray Erlenborn. Donations were then presented: $500 to The Actors Fund of America; $500 to the Bedside Network; $1000 to AFTRA'S Frank Nelson Scholarship Fund which was accepted by Veola Vonn Nelson.

The Awards were then given. Special awards were given to (1) Sidney Slon for his contributions to radio. Sidney wrote a special Shadow script for Quick as a Flash. (2) SPERDVAC for their dedication and work to preserve radio. (3) Anthony Tollin for 5 years of planning all the re-creations for the conventions plus much else.

I want to again thank all the guests who were very gracious in granting interviews and giving of their time to be with us.
